CREATIVE WISDOM™

The Story Behind Heart of Drama

14yrs ago Faith, teacher and facilitator of The Breakthrough Experience, discovered for herself insights into Universal Laws and how they impact the life we lead and how understanding them assists us to really live our dreams and unleash our full potential. To state an often used phrase "Life is not a dress rehearsal". And so the inspiration came to put together a one day seminar where she could share with actors, writers, directors and anyone associated with the business a greater truth and knowledge of life that could, when considered, liberate those endeavouring to live a creative life and thereby expand their potential and level of self mastery.

The Heart of Drama is a unique and self empowering seminar for those working in the performing arts. It aims to give and build clarity, vision and certainty which comes out of the beginning of an understanding of Universal Laws. We have received an overwhelming response from actors, directors, agents and drama teachers. Some have said that they have not only gotten so much out of the day for their career but also for their life. This seminar is not to be missed. An opportunity of a lifetime to shed a few myths, to gain insights as to how to manage yourself in this business, to understand and communicate at a deeper level, to take the work to a new level of certainty, to lift your self worth and gain a greater sense of deserving.

Some latest feedback on the Heart of Drama seminar from actors, directors, agents and drama teachers:

"This course has given me some unbelievable information. I know believe in the fact that I have a greater truth towards myself, almost to the point that it felt too overwhelming. But now I have a greater understanding of myself and I believe that this is the key to opening myself up in a whole new and flexible manner that I believe I can only prevail and pursue my dreams with a real sense and directed purpose". Matt, Sydney 2009

"The Heart of Drama crystallized my belief that we are the master weavers of our own paths as actors in this theatre and canvas that is life" Erryn, Sydney 2009

"For years I have been searching trying to find the best school, the best teachers, the best coaches it has taken me all over the world and back again. Last night I sat in my room and I finally felt that I understood that I'm not going to find it from anyone else, I found it. It's in me. So it's very inspiring to come here today and have you repeat this to me. Everything happens for a reason...I'm very glad I was here. Thank you for sharing." Hanna, Sydney 2008

"I realized that I have the full power to my destiny, and no one else can take this away from me. I am now more empowered than ever to follow my own certainties and use that confidence to inspire others to find their certainties. With my own certainty, comes limitless love, and therefore limitless potential. Love is the fuel for me to fly." Jessie, Actor, Melbourne 2009

"I am moving to the US next year and after doing this seminar I am empowered to move with confidence. I'm also empowered with certainty to make it in this business. Thank you so much, I'm detailing my plans every day." Jessica, Gold Coast 2009

"Faith's workshop has taught me how to start unlocking my emotions within and how to apply this to acting. In fact I must say out of all the acting type workshops I've been to over the years, Faith's has by far been the best and the most practical and has made the most sense when it comes to analysing people's thoughts and emotions, the negatives and the positives." Leonie, QLD 2008

"The Heart of Drama has given me practical, applicable tools to fasttrack me in life to where I want to go. I no longer see shut doors, I see exciting beautiful stain glass windows to climb through. This is wisdom for so much more than acting!" Julia, Sydney 2009
